INDEPENDENT STUDY POLICY

Sage Oak Charter Schools (“SOCS” or the “Charter School”) adopt this Independent Study Policy to apply to all students enrolled in SOCS. Sage Oak Charter Schools offers independent study to meet the educational needs of students enrolled in the Charter School. Independent study is an alternative education program designed to teach the knowledge and skills of the core curriculum. SOCS shall provide appropriate existing services and resources to enable students to complete their independent study successfully.

The following written policies have been adopted by the Board of Directors for implementation at the Charter School:

1. For students in all grade levels offered by the Charter School, the maximum length of time that may elapse between the time an assignment is made and the date by which the student must complete the assigned work shall be twenty (20) school days.
2. An evaluation shall be completed to determine whether it is in the best interests of the student to remain in independent study under the following circumstances:
  - a. In the event that 30% of assignments are missed during a learning period; and
  - b. In the event Student’s educational progress falls below satisfactory levels as determined by the Charter School’s Satisfactory Educational Progress Policy and procedure which considers ALL of the following indicators:
    - i. The pupil’s achievement and engagement in the independent study program, as indicated by the pupil’s performance on applicable pupil-level measures of pupil achievement and pupil engagement set forth in Education Code Section 52060(d) paragraphs (4) and (5).
    - ii. The completion of assignments, assessments, or other indicators that evidence that the pupil is working on assignments
    - iii. Learning required concepts, as determined by the supervising teacher.
    - iv. Progressing toward successful completion of the course of study or individual course, as determined by the supervising teacher.

This evaluation will be documented in the attendance record and learning record documents and will be maintained as a mandatory interim student record which shall be maintained for a period of three years from the date of the evaluation and, if the pupil transfers to another California public school, the record shall be forwarded to that school

INDEPENDENT STUDY POLICY

3. The Charter School has adopted tiered reengagement strategies for all pupils who are not generating attendance for more than three school days or 60 percent of the instructional days in a school week, or 10 percent of required minimum instructional time over four continuous weeks of a local educational agency's approved instructional calendar, pupils found not participatory pursuant to Section 51747.5 for more than the greater of three school days or 60 percent of the scheduled days of synchronous instruction in a school month as applicable by grade span, or pupils who are in violation of the written agreement pursuant to Education Code Section 51747(g). These procedures are as follows:
  - a. Verification of current contact information for each enrolled pupil;
  - b. Notification to parents or guardians of lack of participation within one school day of the recording of a non-attendance day or lack of participation;
  - c. A plan for outreach from the school to determine pupil needs including connection with health and social services as necessary;
  - d. A clear standard for requiring a pupil-parent-educator conference to review a pupil's written agreement, and reconsider the independent study program's impact on the pupil's achievement and well-being.

4. The following plan shall be in place in accordance with Education Code Section 51747(e) to provide opportunities for both synchronous instruction and live interaction:
  - a. Pupils in all grades TK-12 will have access to their teacher of record (as designated by Education Code Section 51747.5) for synchronous instruction opportunities as outlined in Education Code Section 51747(e). This may include, but is not limited to, specific subject matter instruction, office hours, whole group instruction, small group instruction, one on one instruction. Pupils in grades 4-8 shall have daily opportunities for live interaction, as outlined in Education Code Section 51747(e) between the pupil and a Charter School employee or employees for the purpose of maintaining school connectedness. This interaction may take place in person, or in the form of internet or telephonic communication. Synchronous instruction shall be provided by the teacher of record for that pupil pursuant to Section 51747.5 or the certificated employee of the local educational agency providing instruction for course-based independent study.

INDEPENDENT STUDY POLICY

- b. For pupils in transitional kindergarten through grade 3, inclusive, opportunities for daily synchronous instruction will be provided for all pupils throughout the school year
  - c. For pupils in grades 4 to 8, inclusive, opportunities for both daily live interaction and at least weekly synchronous instruction will be provided for all pupils throughout the school year
  - d. For pupils in grades 9 to 12, inclusive, opportunities for at least weekly synchronous instruction will be provided for all pupils throughout the school year
5. A current written agreement shall be maintained on file for each independent study student, including but not limited to, all of the following:
- a. The manner, time, frequency, and place for submitting a student's assignments, for reporting the student's progress, and for communicating with a student's parent or guardian regarding a student's academic progress.
  - b. The objectives and methods of study for the student's work, and the methods used to evaluate that work.
  - c. The specific resources, including materials and personnel, which will be made available to the student. These resources shall include confirming or providing access to all pupils to the connectivity and devices adequate to participate in the educational program and complete assigned work.
  - d. A statement of the policies adopted herein regarding the maximum length of time allowed between the assignment and the completion of a student's assigned work, the number of missed assignments allowed, and the level of satisfactory educational progress prior to an evaluation of whether or not the student should be allowed to continue in independent study.
  - e. The duration of the independent study agreement, including beginning and ending dates for the student's participation in independent study under the agreement. No independent study agreement shall be valid for any period longer than one school year.
  - f. A statement of the number of course credits or, for the elementary grades, other measures of academic accomplishment appropriate to the agreement, to be earned by the student upon completion.

INDEPENDENT STUDY POLICY

- g. A statement detailing the academic and other supports that will be provided to address the needs of pupils who are not performing at grade level, or need support in other areas, such as English learners, individuals with exceptional needs in order to be consistent with the pupil's individualized education program or plan pursuant to Section 504 of the federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (29U.S.C. Sec. 794), pupils in foster care or experiencing homelessness, and pupils requiring mental health support.
  - h. The inclusion of a statement in each independent study agreement that independent study is an optional educational alternative in which no student may be required to participate.
  - i. In the case of a student who is referred or assigned to any school, class or program pursuant to Education Code Section 48915 or 48917, the agreement also shall include the statement that instruction may be provided to the student through independent study only if the student is offered the alternative of classroom instruction.
  - j. Each written agreement shall be signed, prior to the commencement of independent study, by the student, the student's parent/guardian if the student is less than 18 years of age, the certificated employee who has been designated as having responsibility for the general supervision of independent study, and all persons who have direct responsibility for providing assistance to the student.
6. It will be made clear to parents that enrollment in the school is voluntary. Independent study is an optional educational alternative in which no pupil may be required to participate. The student will always be eligible to return to his/her local school district. The Charter School will assist with the transition of pupils whose families wish to return to in-person instruction from independent study expeditiously, and, in no case, later than five instructional days.
7. The Charter School shall provide content aligned to grade level standards that is provided at a level of quality and intellectual challenge substantially equivalent to in-person instruction. For high school grade levels this shall include access to all courses offered by Charter School for graduation and approved by the UC or CSU as credible under the A-G admissions criteria.
