Goal 1

- Brenda - we already have our new VP who is working diligently. We have 3 pathways that are allowing exposure to build and help with researching programs to connect our students to. We just went to Chaffey to hear about programs they are offering.
- Lorinda - what if jr. high kids got to go on college tours?
- Katie Ruiz - Special field trips just for Els?
- Lisette Rivera - Possible trade schools to show different career pathways.
- Jennifer Thomas - There are so many directions and interests that students have, perhaps students can be surveyed about which areas to pursue first.

Goal 2

- Katie - if teachers know more about our program, they can have more buy in and knowledge of what their students are experiencing
- Rodrigo - some parents, this is their second language, maybe they could assist with translating
- L. Rivera - for spanish speakers, bridging the gap has been a big relief for them

Goal 3

- Theresa Tedesco - Adopting the ELlevation program and training teachers
- Katie Ruiz - In the parent meeting, explain what the ELPAC is and what the different scores mean. Doing data chats about their student's scores.
- Jennifer Thomas - Offer study groups to introduce the test beforehand
- Katie Ruiz to Everyone - Utilization of Tutor.com for test prep

What supports can we offer?

- Jennifer Thomas - Offer study groups to introduce the test beforehand
- Katie Ruiz and Theresa Tedesco - Utilization of Tutor.com for test prep, but not many are using it, so how can we roll it out differently and increase participation?
- Theresa Tedesco - More math classes
- Adding here: Jodi reducing the amount of opt-outs from ELD by highlighting the advantages
